From COMMEMORATIVE BIOGRAPHICAL RECORD OF THE COUNTY
OF YORK, ONTARIO. Toronto, 1907.

JAMES SHAW, a well-known resident of Toronto, whose home is at No. 20 Webster avenue, is a native of ~~Ireland~~ Ireland, born in County Sligo, in 1820, son of Allan and Margaret (Brett) Shaw.

Allan Shaw and his wife were born in the same county, he in 1776 and she in 1780. They came to Canada in 1829, and in September of that year located in Toronto. Before long they removed to what is now County Peel, and settled on a bush farm of 200 acres in the Gore of Toronto. They cleared the land and made their home there until they died, both passing away in 1860. Mr. Shaw was a Reformer. . . both members of the Methodist Church. . . James Shaw was eight years old when his father settled in the Gore of Toronto, and he grew up on the farm there. On reaching the proper age to begin life for himself he took half of his father's land, and cultivated his 100 acres until 1871, when he removed to Toronto. . . .

Obituary

Mrs. R. Shaw.

For Gene

The death took place at the home of her daughter Mrs. Edith Kellam, Woodbridge, of Mrs. Robert Andrew Shaw of Tullamore. Mrs. Shaw was in her 63rd year at the time of her death and had been sick only a week. She went to Woodbridge to visit her daughter, only a week before she became ill. Mrs. Shaw was the daughter of the late John Hewson, and was born in the Tullamore neighborhood, where she had spent the greater part of her life. She is survived by three sons, Edward, Gladstone and Melville, all of Tullamore, and one daughter. She was a member of Salem United Church.

CHRISTIAN GUARDIAN, 28 July 1852.

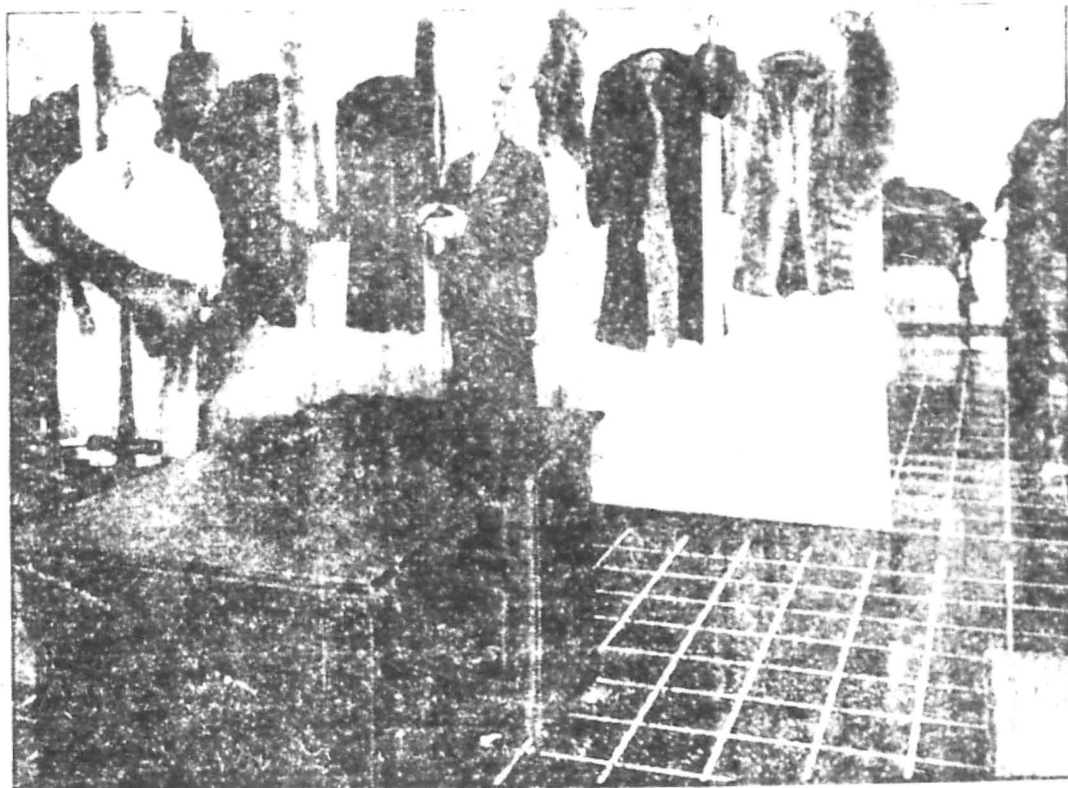

Married - by the Rev. James Spencer, in Toronto, 23 July,
Mr. James Shaw, to Miss Jane Shaw, both of Toronto Gore.
